Bayo,

Good morning, I am shocked as well. I did not say I was re-organizing the office. I said I was filing materials and I pointed out to you the general files, personnel files, and vendor files. The student workers shredded old time sheets from students who had worked here years ago and grades from previous semesters - all documents containing social security numbers and I believe I disposed of them properly. No information of any sort relative to the smooth operation of the Dean's Office was shredded. If you have a question about whether I am being trustworthy, perhaps I shouldn't stay any longer than today. I will notify Jason Kneip of the shredding.
